We have received the application or petition ("your case") listed above. This notice shows that your case was filed on the "Received Date" listed above. It does NOT grant the beneficiary any immigration status, and it is not evidence that your case is still pending. We will notify you in writing when we make a decision on your case or if we need additional information.

Please save this and any other notices about your case for your records. You should also keep copies of anything you send us, as well as proof of delivery. Have these records available if you contact us about your case.

T/U Filings - If you were still in valid U or T nonimmigrant status on the date your Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) was received, that status is extended until a decision is reached on your Form I-485. If your status was no longer valid by the date your Form I-485 was received, you will need to file the Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status (Form I-539) with this office to request an extension of your nonimmigrant status.

Affidavit of Support - If a Form I-864, Affidavit of Support, is required for your filing, please understand that it is a contract between your sponsor and the government of the United States. This means that your sponsor is telling the government that he/she is willing and able to financially support you if needed. It may also make you ineligible for certain Federal, state, or local means-tested benefits, because he/she has indicated that they will support you. If you do receive any means-tested benefits, section 213A(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) states that the benefits-granting entity shall request reimbursement from your sponsor.

EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION:

You are authorized to work in the United States while your Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) is pending. You may apply for work authorization by submitting an Application for Employment Authorization (Form I-765), pursuant to Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 274a.12(c)(9), to this office. If you have already filed this application, the decision on your application will be sent under separate cover.

DEPARTING FROM THE UNITED STATES:

If you plan to depart the United States, you must obtain permission to return to the United States by requesting advance parole before you leave. If you do not obtain advance parole before your departure, you will be considered to have abandoned your application for adjustment of status and the application will be denied. Please see 8 CFR section 245.23(j), for T adjustment of status applications, and section 245.24(j), for U adjustment of status applications. In addition, you may be unable to re-enter the United States, or you may be placed in removal proceedings before an Immigration Judge. You may apply for advance parole by submitting an Application for Travel Document (Form I-131) to this office. If you have already filed this application, the decision on your application will be sent under separate cover.

Biometrics - We require biometrics (fingerprints, a photo, and a signature) for some types of cases. If we need biometrics from you, we will send you a SEPARATE appointment notice with a specific date, time and place for you to go to a USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) for biometrics processing. You must wait for that separate appointment notice and take it (NOT this receipt notice) to your ASC appointment along with your photo identification. Acceptable kinds of photo identification are:

- A passport or national photo ID issued by your country,
- A driver's license,
- A military photo ID, or
- A state-issued photo ID card.

If you receive more than one ASC appointment notice (even for different cases), take them both to the first appointment date.

If your address changes - If you move while your case is pending, please visit www.uscis.gov/addresschange for information on how to update your address. Remember to update your address for all your receipt numbers.

Return of Original Documents - Use Form G-884, Request for the Return of Original Documents, to request the return of original documents submitted to establish eligibility for an immigration or citizenship benefit. You only need to submit one Form G-884 if you are requesting multiple documents contained in a single USCIS file. However, if the requested documentation is in more than one USCIS file, you must submit a separate request for each file. (For example: if you wish to obtain your mother's birth certificate and your parents' marriage certificate, both of which are in the USCIS file that pertains to her, submit one Form G-884 with your mother's information.)

NOTICE: Under the INA, the information you provide on and in support of applications and petitions is submitted under the penalty of perjury. USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. We will use the information obtained to determine whether you are eligible for the benefit you seek. If we find any derogatory information, we will provide you and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28 an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
